Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-9 and 44-51, drawn to a method and a system directed to effecting an electronic commerce using a client-server mechanism to provide a single spatial environment for simultaneous display of multiple catalog hierarchies and promote cross-selling of products, classified in class 705, subclass 27.
  - II. Claims 10-16, drawn to a method and a computer program product of electronic commerce comprising the steps of monitoring and tracking the shopper's activity so as to use the shopper's profile to take appropriate actions to help facilitate a sale to the shopper, classified in class 705, subclass 26.
  - III. Claims 17-43 and 52, drawn to a method, a computer program product and a system of electronic commerce directed to determining in real time contextual information from the web site being currently displayed to the customer, tracking the position of the user's current location on the web site and using these information to help the customer to make purchases, classified in class 705, subclass 26.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions III, II and I are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, Invention II has separate utility such as monitoring and tracking the shopper's activity so as to use the shopper's profile to take appropriate actions to help facilitate a sale to the shopper, which is not required in the invention I. Similarly invention III has separate utility such as determining in real time contextual information from the web site being currently displayed to the customer, tracking the relative position of the user's current location on the web site, which is not required in the invention II. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized different classification, divergent subject matter and the search required for Invention III is not required for Invention II and similarly, the search required for invention II is not required for invention I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. A telephone call was made to attorney James Austin on 12/9/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
